RE: ANNA BUNCH JOINS CHRISTIAN COUNTY PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS OFFICE

Ozark, MO – Christian County – Prosecuting Attorney Amy Fite announces that on Monday November 19, 2012 Anna Bunch joined the Prosecuting Attorney's as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney. Ms. Bunch Anna received her undergraduate degree from University of Missouri majoring in Journalism and Political Science. She received her Juris Doctorate from University of Missouri School of Law in May of 2007. Prior to joining the Christian County Prosecutor's office, she worked for the Greene County Prosecutor's Office where she prosecuted a variety of crimes including property crimes and crimes against persons, and most recently served in the Warrant Unit reviewing the majority of cases that were received into the office and served as a liaison with law enforcement officers. Ms. Bunch has also worked at the Missouri Attorney General's office handling criminal appeals and motions for post-conviction relief.

Ms. Bunch in her current duties will carry a felony and misdemeanor caseload as well as appear in associate circuit court. She was hired to fill a currant vacancy in the office. Ms. Fite stated, "I am very excited to have Ms. Bunch come and join our office. I believe her experience and work ethic will help us to continue to provide efficient and effective prosecutions for the citizens of Christian County."
