8. HIGHLIGHTS

In 2024, the CCPA office received grant funding that reimbursed all or a partial portion of six full-time positions. The CCPA Office was the recipient of proceeds from the STOP grant, VOCA grant, and the Prosecutors and Law Enforcement Training Grant. The STOP grant provides funding support for one full-time assistant prosecuting attorney and one full-time victim advocate. The VOCA grant funds three full-time victim advocate positions. Additionally, beginning January 1, 2022, the CCPA Office was awarded one million dollars in ARPA funding that was available for three years. In 2024, ARPA funded two assistant prosecuting attorney, two legal assistant positions, and one investigator. Eleven positions within the CCPA office are supported by alternative funding sources.

In August of 2023, the Christian County Prosecuting Attorney received $62,600 from the Missouri Department of Social Services to be utilized for the training of multidisciplinary team members in the prevention and investigation of child sexual abuse. The Christian County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office hosted five trainings throughout 2024. In total, over 200 attendees participated in the various sessions presented by internationally recognized experts, Cory Jewell Jensen, Dr. Jack Schaffer, Dr. Graham Hill, and Dr. Michael Bourke. All trainings were approved for POST and CLE credit.

In May, the Christian County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office provided the “Crime Scene to Trial” training for law enforcement and prosecutors. The Prosecutor’s Training Grant provided funding for the training to be conducted using a mock house staged as the active crime scene. The physical location allowed the three MDT teams to conduct their investigations as a simulated real-life scenario complete with a “dirty house” crime scene and actors in the roles of suspects and victims.
